Delaware North Joins AMAC as Newest Corporate Partner

WASHINGTON, DC (June 14, 2017) – Airport Minority Advisory Council (AMAC) President & CEO, Krystal Brumfield released the following statement regarding Delaware North becoming AMAC’s newest Corporate Partner:

“We are proud to partner with a global leader in hospitality and food service and look forward to Delaware North’s breadth, depth and decades of experience helping small businesses prosper in the ever-advancing aviation industry. We are especially excited that the partnership comes at commencement of our Annual Airport Business Diversity Conference in Houston, TX where Delaware North will have the opportunity to engage ACDBEs at a higher level.”

As a Corporate Partner Delaware North proves that it cooperatively pursues activities that enhance the business opportunities of minority and women-owned businesses, as well as professional development and career advancement of minorities and women, in the airport and surface transportation industries.

“Our travel hospitality team has been working toward this partnership with AMAC for many years. Delaware North takes pride in building long-term relationships with like-minded organizations. We look forward to working with AMAC to provide opportunities for minority and women-owned businesses within the airports.” said Delaware North Travel Hospitality President, Kevin Kelly.

AMAC’s Annual Airport Business Diversity Conference continues to bring together businesses, aviation professionals, government officials and individuals from around the country to discuss a variety of subjects ranging from how to do business at airports to public policy issues impacting the entire aviation industry. This highly- acclaimed conference provides a balanced program that
