

2018 AMAC Foundation Scholarship Application

Dear Applicant:

The AMAC Foundation awards scholarships annually to students who meet the eligibility and requirements listed below. Students can apply for the AMAC Legacy Award, with a referral from a member of AMAC, or the Aviation and Professional Development Scholarship.

Please keep eligibility, ongoing commitment and instructions sheet for your records.

Eligibility

- The applicant must demonstrate interest in pursuing an aviation related career and seek a major in Aviation, Business Administration, Accounting, Architecture, Engineering, Communications, Finance, Civil / Chemical / Structural / Mechanical / Electrical Engineering, Computer Science and Environmental Science.
- Must be a high school student accepted, an undergraduate or graduate student enrolled at an approved accredited college or university with a minimum GPA of 2.5.
- Involvement in community activities and extracurricular activities.
- A commitment to involvement in furthering the mission of the Airport Minority Advisory Council by participating in the AMAC Student Program.
- Successfully complete and submit application materials as further outlined.
- Must be a U.S. Citizen.

Ongoing Commitment:

Scholarship recipients will be required to continually maintain all the eligibility requirements as outlined above during the awarded term AND provide supporting documentation. Recipients are also required to:

- Become a student member of AMAC — annual membership fee is $25.
- Communicate with AMAC once during the school term scholarship is awarded.
- Submit a semester progress report and copy of grades to show proof of maintaining required GPA.
- Students are eligible for multiple scholarship awards but must reapply each application period.
- Awardees are encouraged to attend AMAC's Annual Airport Business Diversity Conference in Seattle, WA from August 21-25, 2018.
